ABOUT

Mill Farm is a place where animals and wildlife are cared for like family, creativity flourishes and guests can feel calm, relaxed and reconnected with nature.

Located on the banks of the River Yeo in Bradford Abbas, Dorset we are the ideal place to hold events.

Alongside our smallholding, home to alpacas, miniature sheep, chicken, ducks, peacocks, guinea fowl and bees, we also run Mill Farm Music Studio. This state of-the-art recording facility is ideal for aspiring musicians and established bands alike. We have a passion for creativity and Mill Farm provides an idyllic backdrop to inspire your next project.

The recording studio at Mill Farm has been designed to offer the ideal 'one-room' recording experience. Set-up for quick workflow, the recording studio boasts a hugely impressive range of high-end recording and production equipment and a very long list of instruments, which can all be played by those using the studio.

Matching the demands of modern recording, the studio blends both vintage and modern equipment to accommodate for all sounds and genres, in complement to skilled production offered by the studio team. We are dedicated and passionate about music and recording.

Mill Farm Studios works with musicians seeking to develop writing or recording projects in a comfortable, relaxed and creative countryside environment.

CREATE

Mill Farm recording studio is located in an eco-friendly dutch barn conversion located right in the heart of the farm. The recording studio and adjoining venue in the barn are powered by solar energy to minimise our footprint.

Set amidst the expansive green fields of Dorset, the studio was purpose built with acoustics in mind and has been designed to enable quick workflow by keeping set-up times to an absolute minimum. Sessions can be tracked from the moment you walk in, enabling you to get the most out of your studio time.

The recording studio has the all-important great 'vibe'; a truly relaxed, homely but inspiring feel, with a wide range of quality instruments and amps available for guests to use. There are 30 plus guitars, mandolins and ukuleles, and with Martin guitars to Pearl drum kits at your disposal, the creative possibilities really are endless.

The production team uses a Slate Raven Mti production console, Neve & SSL preamps, and Drawmer channel strips, all included to provide a high quality recording experience.

be a legend...”

PERFORM

Venue

The Omelette Club is Mill Farm's live music and events venue, which comfortably seats up to 50 people or around 75 standing only. Featuring a built-in stage, top notch tech equipment and great acoustics, the Omelette Club offers the ideal space for putting on your next music gig or private event.

The history behind the name...

The Omelette Club is named after a Club of the same name, run by Mark's french grandmother, Germaine Caillaud, during the late 1950's & early 1960's. Originally located off Piccadilly in London at 'Les Ambassadeurs', the Club then moved to Abbots Langley in Hertfordshire.

The image shows a rustic interior space, likely a pub or a small venue. In the foreground, there are several long wooden tables and benches made of light-colored wood. The floor is made of large, light-colored stone tiles. In the background, there is a stage area with a red carpet. On the stage, there are musical instruments, including a guitar and a keyboard, and a microphone stand. The walls are decorated with various items, including mounted animal heads, framed pictures, and a large tapestry. The lighting is warm and ambient.

Festivals & Events

At Mill Farm we hold a wide variety of events. From festivals on the outdoor stage, where local musicians and those from further afield, come to perform their music, to intimate gigs in our dutch barn. Over the summer months we welcome visits from touring theatre companies on the outdoor stage, such as The Rude Mechanicals. Perfect on summer's evening with a glass of wine and a Mill Farm picnic (and perhaps an alpaca!).

Our striking indoor venues, The Omelette Club and Guitar Bar, hold music and entertainment events run year round. We support local musicians and offer local ciders and ales in our bar. In addition, we regularly welcome the Mill Farm Dining Society, Songwriter's Circle, and Rockschoool. For more information, please check out our website for details and bookings.
